20. [] BRIEFING Spoke with Bob Dockery, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, with respect to the briefing for Senator Paul Sarbanes (D., Md.) on 24 June, and passed on Dockery's suggestions with respect to the material to be covered, to [] CSS. 25X1

Dockery also asked for a briefing on Cuban activities in the Western Hemisphere for himself and would like a list, country by country, of Cubans assigned, either officially or in country unofficially, in all countries in the Western Hemisphere, as well as any indication that Cuba will try to stir up trouble or give military advice to opposition forces. I told him I thought we could provide most of the information, but would get back to him.

21. [] BRIEFING Bruce Van Voorst, on the staff of Senator Dick Clark (D., Iowa), called and we confirmed 28 June at 2:30 p.m. as the time for the briefing on Soviet missile systems. He also asked that we postpone the 24 June briefing from 2:30 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. After checking with Howard Stoertz, NIO, I told him we would accommodate the Senator.

22. [] LIAISON Bill Hoffman, in the office of Senator Mike Gravel (D., Alaska), called requesting figures on U.S. oil imports on a national basis. I provided him the name and telephone number of the person in the Federal Energy Administration who would give him the information.

Gehrig said he understands that the Advisory Group has the prerogative to determine whether or not they desire his attendance at the closed session briefing scheduled for 6 and 7 July. If he is invited, and there is a problem concerning compartmented clearances, he said he would be getting back in touch with me. I said I would try to assist him should such a problem develop.

24. [] LEGISLATION Called Jim MacRae, OMB, and asked him if he could expedite clearance of our views letter on S. 1264, the "Federal Acquisition Act of 1977," or in the alternative would permit us to send the letter directly to the Committee with a paragraph stating the letter had not been cleared by OMB. He said he did not think the latter would be necessary, because he had heard that Brian Walsh, on the staff of the Senate Governmental Affairs Committee, had been giving all agencies extensions in getting their reports to the Committee.

25. [] LEGISLATION Called Brian Walsh, on the staff of the Senate Governmental Affairs Committee, regarding our views letter on S. 1264, the "Federal Acquisition Act of 1977." He granted the Agency an extension on the due date of 25 June 1977. He said the Committee was probably going to hold hearings in late July, and he also said he would like the opportunity to discuss the Agency's procurement needs with Agency representatives informally.

26. [] BRIEFING I accompanied [] [] Office of Security, to Room 6202 of the Dirksen Senate Office Building, to help prepare for the DCI's 1600 hours briefing of the Joint Economic Committee's Subcommittee on Priorities and Economy in Government. Later I picked up revised copies of a part of the DCI's presentation at the DCI's EOB office and distributed them to the seven oversight committees: Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, Senate Committee on Appropriations, Senate Armed Services Committee, House Armed Services Committee, House Appropriations Committee and House International Relations Committee.

27. [] LIAISON While in the Capitol, I bumped into George Murphy, Executive Director of the Joint Atomic Energy Committee, who asked again about the additional traces he had asked for on 21 June when I delivered other traces to him. Later in the day, [] [] pointed out that the note with the other traces clearly stated there was no additional information on anyone mentioned. I called Murphy and passed that word.

I said they could, and would.

[] LIAISON In pursuit of clearance information on David Martin, of the Congressional Budget Office, and three colleagues, for all of whom Martin had phoned in full names and social security numbers, I learned from June Le Grand, of the Legislative Liaison Office of the Department of Defense, that none were recorded in her office as having clearances. I talked with Martin about this, who said there was some mix-up and that he would try to straighten it out. See Memorandum for the Record.

34. [] LIAISON Talked to Chairman Daniel K. Inouye (D., Hawaii), Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, concerning his earlier inquiry regarding the purchase of a CIA flag. (See Memorandum to DCI, dated 24 June 1977, OLC 77-2593.)

36. [] LIAISON Received a call from Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, who referred to some of our previous conversations on the subject of Agency directives regarding contacts with U.S. news media. Miller asked me if there had been any other directives on this subject other than the basic pronouncement. I told Miller I was quite certain there had not been although, as he knew, former Director George Bush had expanded his original policy determination to apply to stringers as well as regular employees of news organizations. Miller said he recalled this but just wanted to check to see if anything new had been disseminated. I told him I would check on this and get back in touch with him.

37. [] LIAISON I called Charles Ferris, on the staff of House Speaker Thomas O'Neill, Jr. (D., Mass.), regarding the action to be taken on a House Select Committee on Intelligence. I recalled that Ferris had been present at the Director's meeting with Representative Edward P. Boland (D., Mass.) on this subject and Ferris also confirmed that action would be taken on a House resolution by the House Rules Committee on Tuesday, 28 June, and by the full House on Wednesday, 29 June. I mentioned to Ferris that I had been in touch with John O'Donnell, on Representative Boland's staff, in the absence of [] from the city this week and had offered to provide any additional assistance that might be needed. I also made the same offer to Ferris. Ferris said he thought they had all that they would need but should they need anything further he would certainly contact us.

38. [] LIAISON Talked with Dennis Taylor, on the staff of House Minority Leader John J. Rhodes (R., Ariz.), about impending action on a House Select Committee on Intelligence next week. Taylor said that Representative Rhodes would like to meet with me and we set a date for 28 June at 11:30 a.m.

40. [] LIAISON By way of follow-up to conversations which I had with Senator Orrin G. Hatch (R., Utah) and his Administrative Assistant, Frank Madsen, following the Director's briefing of the Subcommittee on Priorities and Economy in Government, Joint Economic Committee, I called Madsen and told him that we would be happy to set up a briefing for the Senator on the world oil situation at his convenience. Madsen thanked me for following up on this and said he would be back in touch with us to suggest a date.

41. [] LIAISON Talked with Jack Brady, Chief of Staff, House International Relations Committee, regarding his conversations with [] about a possible covert action update briefing within the next few days. I called Brady's attention to the fact that action would be taken on a House Select Committee resolution the middle of next week and it appeared to me that under the circumstances we should defer exposure of covert action material until after decisions had been made with respect to jurisdiction of the Committee. Brady argued that under the law the House International Relations Committee was still required to receive the briefing and I countered that under the law the Director was also required to protect intelligence sources and methods. I told Brady that I proposed to take this matter up with the Director and suggested he call the Chairman and if necessary House Speaker Thomas O'Neill, Jr. (D., Mass.) to get their approval to defer action on a covert action update briefing until the House acts on the oversight committee resolution. Brady asked that I not do this until he had had an opportunity to talk to Chairman Clement J. Zablocki (D., Wis.) one more time. I agreed and told him I would await further word from him.

42. [] LIAISON Per her request, I forwarded via courier maps of North and South Korea to Joyce Schub, in the office of Senator Joseph Biden (D., Del.).

25X1

43. [] LIAISON Jack Brady, Chief of Staff, House International Relations Committee, called to tell me that, after having considered the points I had made to him about possible delay of the update briefing until passage of a House resolution on oversight, it still had been determined that they need the briefing now, which means a week's advance notice to the 37 members of the full Committee, and theoretically to the entire membership of the House, although it would only be scheduled as a briefing of the Subcommittee on Security and Scientific Affairs. Brady assured that he would not send the notice out until we had gotten back in touch with him.

44. [] LIAISON Jean Evans, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, called on behalf of a constituent, [] and I informed him we had sent a response to the Committee dated 21 June reporting that our findings were negative. Evans suspected as much.

45. [] LIAISON Spoke with Carolyn Bacon, Administrative Assistant to Senator John G. Tower (R., Texas), about a Privacy Act matter [] which reflected contacts between the Agency and Senator Tower's office. Ms. Bacon appreciated our consideration of their equities and I provided her information on our past dealings with their office on this matter, which will be released.

46. [] LIAISON In the company of [] met with Chuck Snodgrass, House Defense Appropriations Subcommittee staff, and provided him the background material we had prepared earlier in the morning for Chairman George Mahon (D., Texas) at Snodgrass' request. Snodgrass felt the information was extremely helpful and comprehensive and asked if we could assist on two other points, the legislative history of 18 U.S.C. 1116 and precis of certain findings of the Church Committee.
